Dear readers,

We would like to thank our regular and new readers for a successful 2017. We saw great turnouts at all our events from school career fairs and the Study in Europe Higher Education Fair to our „Doing a Doctorate“ event and symposium.

We would also like to extend our gratitude to our partners that have co-organized or helped us with events throughout the year.

Let us keep in touch. Please look out for future events, calls for applications and updates by checking our Facebook page

Please note that the DAAD Information Centre will be closed from 14th December 2017 to 2nd January 2018.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and hope to meet many of you again at our events next year.

Best regards,

Recent Events

Symposium 16th + 17th October

The DAAD, together with TUM Asia, partnered with the Employment and Employability Institute (e2i) and other local organisations for a two-day symposium on 16th and 17th October on the topic "Beyond the Hype: The Impact of Industrie 4.0 on our Social and Political Landscape". During the presentations, discussion sessions and the site visit, attendees had plenty of opportunities to discuss, network, exchange ideas, as well as forge new connections.

German Opportunities Day - 28th October, 1-5pm, National Library

The German Opportunities Day was an excellent chance to get to know Germany better. There were German trial classes for kids by the Goethe Institut, an interactive screen by Fraunhofer Singapore, presentations on studying in Germany by the DAAD, a German puppet theatre for the little ones, company representatives present to provide information to Singaporean students on internships. These activities attracted a diverse crowd to the National Library.
